

RESOURCES FOR SPEECH

(updated January 2004)

I. REFERENCE BOOKS

- A. Specialized Encyclopedias (more than 300 sets)
- B. Books of Illustrations (R 251 as well as 251 downstairs)
- C. Current Biography (R 920)
- D. American National Biography R 920.073 A512 1999
- E. Gallup Poll R 303.3 G175

II. GENERAL COLLECTION

Books, Videos, MFC, E-books

III. INTERNET SITES

A. GALILEO <http://www.galileo.usg.edu>

1. Academic Search Premier Indexing and full text for periodicals
2. Lexis-Nexis Academic Universe. Indexes newspapers and news magazines. Completely full text (Not available full text off campus)
3. Wilson Omnifile full text on all general subjects (need password off campus)
4. Research Library Indexing and full text for periodicals

B. Other Sites

1. Facts.com <http://www.2facts.com> (for the clueless)
Today's Science
Issues and Controversies
2. Statistics (to impress your peers)
Information Please <http://www.infoplease.com>
Librarian's Index to the Internet <http://lii.org/search/file/statistics>
Statistical Resources on the Web
<http://www.lib.umich.edu/govdocs/stats.html>
3. Opinion surveys( for clout)
Barna Research <http://www.barna.org/cgi-bin/Home.asp>
4. Quotes/Illustrations (to WOW folks)
Bartlett's Quotations <http://www.bartleby.com>
Sermon illustrations <http://www.christianglobe.com/Illustrations/>
Good Clean Fun <http://slonet.org/~tellswor/#NEW>
5. Biographical Sites (for the Siteless)
Biography.com <http://biography.com/>
6. Medical Information (for the uninformed)
Medline Plus <http://www.nlm.nih.gov/medlineplus>
Health Web <http://www.healthweb.org/>

C. Search Engines

Google <http://www.google.com>